January 19

The Bullet

131 Days 'Til Graduation

Tuesday, January 15, 1952

Mary Washington College of the University of Virginia

Vol. XXV, No. 11

Poems and Themes By Concert Dance At Annual Convo.

The Mary Washington Concert Dance Club will give their annual Convocation program Wednesday night, January 16. The program will consist of many poems and theme variations as well as portraits set to music.

traits set to music.

The opening dance, "Monkey Shines", by McDonald is followed by "Theme Variations" of Ray Gruen and the poetry of Pirischetti, namely, "Unroll the Flickers Rousing Drums", "Memory in Corners" and "Watke Subtler Drums." "Skyscrapers", by Carpenter, and "Manhattan Towers" (New York's My Home), by Jenkins, is performed by the Junior Dance Club.

Next on the agenda are "Por-

Dance Club.

Next on the agenda are "Portraita", by Thomson: "Picasso",
"Lullaby" and "Sea Coast." "Our Town", a suite by Coyland and James and consisting of "Our Town," "Main Street", "Soda
Fountain", "Evening in the Park",
"Saturday Evening", "In Church", and "Resting Place" will conclude the Convocation program.
The choreography for the en-

The choreography for the en-tire program is written by Mrs. Read, Betsy Martin, Jean Moodis-paw and the club members. The pianist is Alberta Shelton and Julia Starkey is in charge of lighting. Julia Si lighting.

The Concert Dance Club is spon-sored by Mrs. Read and Betsy Martin is club president.

Seniors Attend D.C. Math Meeting

Anne Brittain Caffey of Round Anne Brittain Caffey of Round Hill, Virginia; Nancy Carroll Coop-er of Baltimore, Maryland; Nancy Marie Parker of Whaleyville, Vir-ginia; Margaret Eugenia Rawls of Norfolk, Virginia; and Barbara Ann Staylor of Chuckatuck, Vig-ginia attended the fall meeting of the Maryland-District of Colum-bia-Virginia section of The Math-ematical Association of America at the National Bureau of Stand-ards in Washington, D. C., on De-cember 8th. cember 8th.

cember 8th.

A number of mathematics students helped with the secretarial work of mailing out notices of the meeting, and these five Mary Washington seniors handled registration. After the meeting they enjoyed visiting the Standards Eastern Automatic Computer. This is one of the high speed computers. is one of the high speed computers which has contributed to rapid de-velopments in numerical mathe-matics in recent years.

Dr. Charles H. Frick, Professor of Mathematics at Mary Washing-ton is secretary of the section. He is looking for volunteers who will be willing to help with the regis-tration for the spring meeting at Virginia Military Institute next

Russell To Give Series On Futures For Graduates

Mrs. Russell, Director of Student Personnel, is planning a series of four talks during the month of February to assist seniors in de-ciding for their future after gradu-ation. The first discussion will cover how to dec ciding for their future after graduation. The first discussion will cover how to decide what kind of a job you want. The second will give specific information on how to locate the kind of job you want. The third will stress how to write letters of application. The fourth will describe how to conduct yourself at an interview. The time and place for the series will be determined by the wishes of the seniors.

Picture above are the main characters in one of the many hilarious scenes at the Senior Benefit, "Detour."

Vets, Town Girls To Give Dance

On January 19th Monroe Gym will be decked out in white for on that date the Veterans Club and Town Girls Club are sponsoring an informal dance with the theme the theme.

This year the Veterans are trylng to establish an annual tradition of electing a Snow Queen who will be crowned at the dance.
Candidates for the crown have been selected from each class, and the girl elected queen will be the girl receiving the most votes.
A vote is cast by dropping a penny into jars located in the "C" Shoppe.

Music will be provided by the ollege orchestra.

The whole student body is in-vited to attend, and there will be guests from the University of Vir-ginia, Randolph-Macon, University of Richmond, and Quantico.

Town girls are in charge of decorations and refreshments. Dr. George Shankle and Miss Charmenz S. Lenhart are the faculty special secretarial program A special secretarial program will be inaugurated at Mary Washington during the June 16 to August 8 summer session. It is designed for high school graduates wishing to take a short intensive course to prepare for secretarial work; undergraduate college students, regardless of institution they are attending or major field, desiring training in shorthand and typewriting during the summer; typewriting during the summer; and college graduates planning to qualify for secretarial positions.

Secretarial Prog'm To Be Given Here

While the curriculum is designed While the curriculum is designed for two summer sessions of eight weeks, it is expected that many students will meet the minimum business requirements in one ses-sion. Members of the department of economics and business admin-istration will serve as instructors. These secretarial courses are be-ing offered to help alleviate the national shortage of college women prepared for secretarial positions.

> YOU HAVE 15 PINTS HOW ABOUT GIVING JANUARY 25

President of AAUW Second. Formal Addresses Formal Convocation

At formal Convocation on Thurs day, January 10, M.W.C. was hon-ored to have as guest speaker Dr Susan B. Riley, National President of The American Association of University Women, a branch of the International Organization of University Women.

Dr. Riley, a member of the English Department of George Peabody College for Teachers in Tennessee, is a specialist in the field of American Literature. Prior to her visit to M.W.C., she attended the meeting of The American Association of Colleges in Weekley 1988. Washington.

Washington.

We are indebted to Mrs. Wade, the Dean of Freshmen, for the good fortune of having her as an honored guest. Several of the M.W.C. faculty members are acquainted with Dr. Riley, some being former classmates and one,
Dr. Shankle, a former professor.

Dr. Shankle, a former protessor.
There was a dinner held in Dr.
Riley's honor at Seacobeck prior to Convocation. Some fifty additional guests, members of the A.A.U.W. from neighboring cities, were also present. Representatives from Cap and Gown assisted in the welcoming and seating of the guests. guests.

Following dinner, Convocation was held at 7:30 in George Washwas held at 7:30 in George Wash-ington Auditorium where Dr. Riley spoke on "How Mediocre Can We Be?" She emphasized the need for educated people of today to break away from mediocrity and not only to develop them-selves as individuals, but also to help others to do likewise.

Junior Has Poem Accepted By NPA

Kitty Johnson, 20-year old jun-ior, has recently had one of her poems, Northern Lights, accepted by the National Poetry Associa-tion for publication in the Annual Anthology of College Poetry.

The Anthology is a compilation The Anthology is a compilation of the finest poetry written by the college men and women of America, representing every section of the country. Selections were made from thousands of poems submitted. ted.

Kitty is an English major and hails from Worcester, Massachus-

Dance To Be Given In Feb.

The Formal Dance Committee Chairman, Nancy Horan, has re-cently announced that the VMI nanders will play for the Valentine Dance to be given in the Hall of Mirrors on February 23.

The VMI Commanders consist of twelve members from the Virginia Military Institute and Washington and Lee. The band members will be in the dress uniform of VMI for the dance.

Tickets for the second formal dance of the 1951-52 session will be on sale in Miss Stephenson's Office at four dollars. If there are enough applicants for the tickets the Dance Committee will lower the price to three dollars.

MWC Graduate Earns Wings As Air Stewardess

Miss Elsie Scott, of Prince Edward St. in Fredericksburg has received her wings from the Miami Stewardess' Training for Eastern Air Lines. Elsie graduated from Mary Washington College in June of 1951 as a Dramatic Arts and Speech major, and accepted a position in Washington with the American Air Lines. American Air Lines.

American Air Lines.
While she attended M. W. C.
Elsie participated in the various clubs that related to her major.
Outstanding in her work, Elsie graduated from the training school in Florida with an average of 96.6.
The course included such require-The course included such require-ments as passing a test on mechan-ical details of different types of aircraft, leading passengers to safety, and being able to swim to a raft and bring it back to the plane. The physical requirements are comparable to those for movie gtars

Elsie has been assigned Char lotte, North Carolina, as her base. Her first initial flight, as a stewardess was to Detroit, Michigan.

Bus Trip Scheduled

The bus trip to New York January 31 to February 3 has been sold out. If there is sufficient interest, a bus trip may be planned for the Easter holidays.

Class of '52 Presents Its Final Benefit

"Detour" Has Cast of 78

The Senior Class presented "Detour," a musical comedy, this past Saturday night, January 12, at 8 o'clock in Monroe auditorium. Millie Jones directed the produc-

The story dealt with Cindy, a small-town girl (played by Nora Lee Hulme), whose Aunt Mathilda (Bettsanne Norris) has very strict ideas about the rearing of youth. The main highway is being re-paired and the detour route comes thouch. Wighington Ealls, the act. paired and the detour route comes through Wishington Falls, the set-ting of the comedy. With contact with the outside world, Aunt Ma-thilda decides that she has been too harsh with Cindy, and the Benefit ends happily on this note.

Added interest was produced by the confusion of two farm boys, Clem (Phyllis Farmer) and Lem (Betsy Martin), over Sally (Cor-ley Gibson) and her city cousin, Winifred (Margie Gibson).

Finale

Finale

Finale of "Detour" was the singing by the entire cast of all the songs used in benefits by the MWC class of '52: "Let a Smile Be Your Umbrella" from "Torrents and Talents" (freshman year); "We're Gonna Have a Party," written by Betty Lou Fox, who is now attending Columbia University, from "Star Dust" (sophomore year); "Don't Worry," written by Mac Campbell, from "Mardi Gras Madness" (junior year); and "Four Years Together," also written by Mac Campbell, from this year's "Detour."

Mac Campbell wrote all the

from this year's "Detour."

Mac Campbell wrote all the music for "Detour," with the exception of two songs: "Let a Smile Be Your Umbrella," and "We're Gonna Have a Party." She and Margie Gibson wrote the lyrics. All the choreography was done by Betsy Martin, and the script was handled by a committee consisting of M. E. Bruce, Bobble Burgess, Margie Gibson, Millie Jones, and June Kucher.

Betsy Peterson was chairman of Betsy Peterson was chairman of the committee on scenery; Pat Huston headed the props commit-tee; Ann Barton and her committee; Ann Barton and her commit-tee managed the lighting; Bunny Fawthrop, with her committee, handled the costumes; Dorothy Maynard and her assistants took care of the make-up; publicity was handled by Jo Bidgood and her group; Gay Brooke Garrett and her committee sold tickets; E. Louise Beck supervised the pro-Louise Beck supervised the pro-grams committee; and Alice Par-sons was chairman of the ushers. The Seniors are one of the few classes to have used singing chor-uses in their benefits, and thus these choruses have become a trademark of the class.

Large Cast
"Detour" is also outstanding in number of people who were able to take part. There were seventyeight different persons in the cast and many others who managed the

and many others who managed the scenery, props, etc.

Many people, known over the campus for talent in one line, showed that they are not limited to one field. Ann Chase and Julia Starkey (Blossom and Jessica Nightingale in "Detour") sang as well as acted; Nora Lee Hulme (Cindy) rates much merit in speaking role; Phyllis Farmer, in addition to acting, sang and danced; Betsy Martin acted, as did Corley and Margie (Bibson; and Eva Buseman acted and sang in her role of Miss Faculty.

Is There a Value in Multiple-Choice Tests?

Does the answer to the testing problem lie in the use of multiple choice quizes? Can a student's highest abilities and capacities be recognized through the use of a strong, dark pencil to encircle the one correct answer out of three or four suggestions? Is there a strong connection between values in living and a series of black marks? This is doubtful. or four suggestions? Is there a strong connection between values in living and a series of black marks? This is doubtful. They allow the student merely to report the content of reading or lectures and implies that this knowledge is fixed. They do not ask for his opinion and agreement or disagreement with them. The knowledge of single, minor, isolated facts may have some final value but surely this isn't the greatest aim of an educative system. Grades and testing are phases of the ends of an education but if they are required, surely it is justifiable to suggest they be of the highest and most beneficial type. The main advantage of the "hit-or-miss" test is undoubtedly the simplification in correcting them. However, the disadvantages are many. They not only permit but encourage guess work. If one value of education is to provide guidance and help in life after the tests have been completed, these tests fail in their intention. If exams are given to test a student's judgment and ability to correlate and assimilate the subject matter, they are more beneficial. Creative abilities are needed and used throughout life. If a student is allowed to develop and improve these abilities while in school, he is naturally better equipped to live a life of greater value and more meaning.

Campus Clippings

Arthur G. Phillips, associate professor of English at the University of Miami, Fla.

Freshmen believe that all of their professors are smart; Sophomores believe that one or two of their professors are smart—the ones that give them A's.

Freshmen are in college to get an education; sophomores are in college because their fathers refuse to pay their fares to Las Vegas.

Freshmen aren't dry behind the ears: Sophomores are

Freshmen aren't dry behind the ears; Sophomores are always dry

A freshman will take a wooden nickel; a sophomore will take a wooden nickel too, and five minutes later put it in the slot machine.

Freshmen write home once a week; sophomores write whenever they're broke.

A male freshman is looking for a girl like his mother, this is also true of the sophomore, if his mother happens to be Jane Russell.

A freshman's ambition is to get into "Who's Who;" a sophomore just wants to get called before the Kefauver committee. Freshmen suspect that professors aren't human; sophomores know it.

Freshmen kiss their dates goodbye; sophomores kiss them

neilo.

Concludes the professor: "Everybody loves a freshman.
What makes life so disillusioning to a professor is the thought that this year's freshmen will be next year's sophomores.
"Sic transit gloria mundi."

"Sic transit gloria mundi."
A handy organization at the University of Miami known as the Cabbage Patch offers $5 loans to students. These must be paid off in 14 days, with five cents a day for overtime. The university of Illinois has a similar setup.

The Day

From my window, I watched the day arise:
She stretched above the horizon and woke up the skies.
She stepped across the land from mountain-top to mountain-top, mountain-top to mountain-top, trail of light behind her; ght which hesitated on each peak and then slid down the slopes, Filling up the valleys and the plains,

Pouring into windows, and waking up the world.
The sun glided slowly upward, as if pushed by a gentle wind, and The clouds swirled softly in a blue,

blue sky;
While in the valleys below
The drowsy, half awake world moved about its golden busigrasses nodded softly in the lazy breeze.

And here and there a flower lifted its head

As if in answer to some distant call.

I watched the day move on— And suddenly, she ruffled up the clouds,
And spread them thickly all acros

the sky,
And all the sun which glimmered
through seemed gray,
And cast queer shadows on the land.

The warmth was drawn away. The flowers looked up.
The breeze crept up the mountain and swooped down
To set them dancing—

Spun itself and whirled away, circling around the mountain and again down, ashing into trees which bowed before it,

Sweeping over flowers which trembling lay; Then heaved itself against a rumbling cloud, Which burst and spilled its burden on the earth: With such a roar as echoed where the wind blew,

And pressed the shivering grasse to the ground.

Then slid away,

A still small sound of it was heard Far where the sky line meets the earth A final distant rumble,

And it was gone.

And such a hushed quiet in its most heard the flowers lifting their heads from the ground where it had flung them. The clouds shrank back,

And the sun ventured forth again, A tiny ray struck each drop and illuminated it with a tiny glis

Till the whole world was a mirror

for the sun-

for the sun—

And she smiled and sat down in the West and preened herself,
Then the day arose from her throne upon the mountain gathering all her light be-fore her moved back across the land and disappeared with the sun.

Marianne Stivers, '53

Cheating—A Breach of The Honor System By MARTHA LYLE

I hereby declare upon my word

"I hereby declare upon my word of honor that I have neither given nor received help on this work."

Do we, as we write this pledge several times a week, realize the importance of it? To some of us it is just a habit and to others it has a true meaning.

For those who do write it merely as a habit, let's discuss what the word "help," used in this pledge, means.

Cheating is a synonym of the pledge, means.

Cheating is a synonym of the word "help" as it is used in this sense. If we cheat, we take something that does not belong to us and something we do not deserve. and something we do not deserve. Cheating not only means, as most of us probably think, copying from someone else's paper during a test or examination, but also means copying term papers, themes, lab drawings, and direct references from books without using footpotes and quotation marks.

from books without using foot-notes and quotation marks. Maybe we hadn't realized up to now that these are violations of the Honor System, but they are, and should be recognized in such a manner.

Just in case we're not too fa-miliar with the other three offen-ses, let's try to, renew them in our minds. They are lying, steal-our minds. They are lying, stealing, and breaking one's word of honor. These are not to be read and forgotten, but they are standards by which we live.

Are we always conscious of our living Honor System? If we haven't been in the past, let's start now by being ever aware of its meaning, its purpose, and its standards. With the loyal support of the whole student body, our Honor System will remain a cherished tradition, one which will be ished tradition, one which will be admired and respected by al

It goes without saying that this a trite statement, but there is It goes without saying that this is a trite statement, but there is no other way of expressing the thought that college life is what you make it. Those people that sit in their dorms the four years and contribute nothing to the activities that are going on around them at college not only add nothing, but get nothing. This is not meant as a moral lecture on life, but it is directed at the "do-nothings" on the campus, who sit but it is directed at the "do-noth-ings" on the campus, who sit around and complain about the college, and who, at the end of four years, suddenly realize that they have missed college.

One of the most important, and certainly the biggest ways of gaining something from college is to participate in the class benefits. It is an activity that can include everyone, for it doesn't take any to participate in the class benefits. It is an activity that can include everyone, for it doesn't take any technical knowledge of show producing or any special talent. There is a place for every person, and no matter how small or large the part is that you play in putting the show together the important thing is that you have contributed something. When everything suddenly goes wrong in the show—the scene shop has run out of the right paint, all of the props suddenly disappear, the cast all forgets their cues, you wonder why you ever got mixed up in this, but somehow all of these things fade into the background the night of the show. For those that have never worked on a benefit there is no way of explaining the feeling that you have when the curtain goes up for the last time. All the worry and work is forgotten and you suddenly realize that there is reason why you have put so much time into this show, for you have had a part in accomplishing what seemed at one point to be impossible.

There is a reason for this over

There is a reason for this over There is a reason for this over sentimental article also, for I went to the Senior Benefit last Satur-day night, and saw one of the best shows that has been given on the hill.

OF MEN AND MUSIC...

By STAN KOHN

It took me quite a while to get over the Merry Christmas and the Happy New Year, but now that all of the celebrating is over for a year we can go back to our quiet, deep, bumpy rut for another year or so. And I'm gonna continue that same old stuff I've been putting out about musicians all over the Buddy DeFrance, currently the Buddy DeFrance, currently the number one clarinetist for my money, has done The Closer You Are and Too Many Dreams for MGM Records. Vocals on both sides are by the Dave Lambert vocal group and my old flame, Pat Collins, formerly with Charlie Spivak. Pat always reminded me of Anita O'Day's vocals, and both of these sides prove it. The record also shows just how Buddy can be a great clarinetist.

My room-mate brought in a sur-cord also snows just now Buday can be a great clarinetist.

My room-mate brought in a surprise last night, a Les Brown album named "Over The Rainbow." Les' orchestra is currently considered the country's best, and I'm all for him. He gets a new sound that's very hard to describe, and he has the fresh approach that I praised in his Coral waxing of American In Paris. The album contains Green Eyes, Blue Moon, Over The Rainbow, That Old Black Magic, Deep Purple, The Moon Was Yellow, Azure, and Red Wing; every one a colorful tune. The more I hear the Brown Band of renown the more I think he'll soon replace Kenton in the top spot.

apot.
And speaking of Stan Kenton:
he's going on tour with the Lionel Hampton orchestra in something called "The Battle of the Bands."
I don't know what he's trying to prove, but he'll make money, loads of it, with that kind of stuff. Stan has always been called a radical when it comes to music, and Hampton hasn't been too reserved either; so this may be what we've been waiting for. I saw Lionel Hampton last year and he's really got a noisy crew; last time I saw Stan Kenton he was trying to peddle his concert group to a bunch of wild Atlantans. But on to more specific things; Stan's latest record.
Remember when I complained And speaking of Stan Kenton cord. Remember when I complained about Walter Winchell's bright crack concerning a sound connection between Stan's latest Blues in Burlesque and a riveting machine. Well, he was almost right; except Kenton is justified in that he was recording a satire of the kind of stuff other name musicians have been making money on. The record, which is divided on two sides of the disc, is a parody of the big bands playing screamtwo sides of the disc, is a parody of the big bands playing screaming blues with a shouting, hoarse-voiced singer wailing some stolen lyrics. Maynard Ferguson's trumpeting is almost tops (he's just been named no. 1 in the country) throughout the record. Shelly Manne's vocal is a scream—a gemof bulescue on the kinds of thires. Manne's vocal is a scream—a gem of burlesque on the kinds of things done by Woody Herman, Jack Teagarden, and Wynonie Harris. Perhaps Mr. Winchell should think before criticizing the music of Stan because he failed to realize just what the Kenton Krew was trying to do, and just what the name of the record was screaming at him.

at him.

Billy Eckstine and George Shearing, that famous concert pair, have come together at long last for the masses—on record. They've done You're Driving Me Craxy and Taking a Chance on Love in a real cool pairing. Mr. B. speeds us his tempo for the Orazy side. This side also features some neat drum brushing by Denzil Best and solos by Chuck Wayne and Joe Roland on guitar and vibes. Rumors are that they'll continue in concert this year on the east coast, so maybe we can all get to see and hear them.

It's a pity he hasn't more fans them.

It's a pity he hasn't more fans than he has, but Vic Damone is an individualist when it comes to phrasing, interpretation, and emphasis when it comes to singing. He recently recorded Don't Blame Me, which he did in some movie, and I was impressed with his style—something like a reserved male Sarah Vaughan. Flip is I Remember You, Love, a strictly romantic thing for femmes. A vocal group adds to the distraction of a choo-choo rhythm section.

tion.

Occasionally I go off my rocker and become intrigued by a classic. Along comes RCA-Victor with an LP, "Fritz Reiner Conducts Tchai-kovsky Waltzes." For once I like the music and the performance, which makes for a good record. Selections included are from the Fifth Symphony. First Oracia. Fifth Symphony, Eugen Onegin, Nutcracker Suite, Swan Lake, and Sleeping Beauty ballets.

Surprisingly I heard Dvorak's A Minor Violin Concerto the other A Minor Violin Concerto the other day and place it in as high esteem as Mendelssohn's Concerto. It's performed by Nathan Milstein supported by the Minneapolis Symphony. The work is exotic and leans toward something I didn't think Dvorak capable of — light passages and a definite sound that reminds me of music from the Afro Musicians.

Exchange Humor

"My girl has varicose veins, doctor. What do you advise?"
"Rubber stockings."
"How do you know she will let

She: "I'm a good girl."
He: "Who asked you?"
She: "No one."
He: "No wonder you're a good

A professor who comes in late is rare; in fact, he's in a class by himself.

Then there's the meterologist who could look at a girl and tell whether.

Bigshot: "I'll endorse your cig-

Tobacco King: "I'll see you in-hale first."

Customer: "Don't you take anything off for cash?' Salesgirl: "SIR!!"

Bullet Uhe

Student Weekly of Mary Washington College of the University of Va.

Student Weekly of Many Member: Associate Collegiate Press Virginia Intercollegiate Press Intercollegiate Press National Advertising Service, Inc.

Post Office Box 1187, College Station, Fredericksburg, Va. Subscription: $1.00 per year, single copy, 5 cents.

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF Shirley King MANAGING EDITOR BUSINESS MANAGER Ann O'Dette
Peggy Hall
Anne Loyd
Barbara Nordstrom Patsy Saunders News Editor _____ Feature Editor Activities Editor
Sports Editor
Page One Editor Jeanne Rowell
Joan Foley
Lucy Mae Redman
Ann DeWitt
Marge Kodet
Mary Nelson Coleman Photography
Cartonist
Advertising Manager
Circulation Manager
Mailing and Exchange:
Typist ______Mary Bird _ Jimmle Rae Bowen, Frances Roberts, Pat Ives ______Arlene Phelma

By PEGGY ANN SLOAN

Prime Minister Winston Church-is back in the United States! All the other visits of this great statesman to our country have statesman to our country have been of world shaking importance. This trip has special significance in the light it may shed on Brit-ain's foreign policy under a new government.

It seems to be agreed that the main purpose of Churchill's visit is to bind closer relations with President Truman and his cabinet President Truman and his cabinet and to reach broad decisions on world wide issues. Some of the topics that may be discussed in the Churchill-Truman meetings are the command structure of the North Atlantic Treaty, problems involving Germany and the defense of Western Europe, and atomic energy. No doubt the Iranian crisis, financial aid to Britain, Egypt, and the Middle East Command, and relations with the Soviet Union and its allies will also be mentioned.

also be mentioned. Winston Churchill is part American and also part Virginian. His mother was Jennie Jerome, the daughter of the New York publisher Leonard Jerome. Leonard Jerome's paternal grandmother was a Ball of the famous Virginia family that produced the mother of George Washington. Thus, George Washington and Winston Churchill sprang from a common ancestry.

The Prime Minister last visited Virginia in 1946. It was during this trip that he made an address before the General Assembly of Virginia. He declined invitations to address other state legislatures and gave the following explana-

"It would have given me the greatest pleasure," he said, "to accept and fulfill all these (invitations). But as I have not the life and strength to repay all the kindness which is offered me, I felt that these other States would be willing to accept the primacy of the Virginia Assembly, as the most ancient law-making body on the mainland of the Western Hemisphere. And thus I find my self here before you this morning in Richmond, in the historic capital of world-famous Virginia."

The present conferences in

The present conferences in Washington between the heads of Washington between the heads of two of the strongest countries in the world will be eagerly watched by people from every country. Churchill's address before Congress on January 17 is to be televised and, in this way, millions of people will be brought closer to world affairs.

BUY U. S. SAVINGS BONDS

PITTS VICTORIA THEATRE

FREDERICKSBURG, VA.
Afterneon at 3:15; Night, 7 & 9.
Saturday continuous from 1 P. M.
Sunday continuous from 3 P. M.

SUN. & MON., JAN. 13 & 14

"THE DAY THE EARTH STOOD STILL!
With Patricla Neal, Michael
Bennie, Hugh Marlowe

TUES., WED. & THURS., JAN. 15, 16 & 17 -3-BIG DAYS-3--Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis in "THAT'S MY BOY" Also: CARTOON

FRI. & SAT., JAN. 18 & 19 mond O'Brien, Yvonne De Carl Barry Fitzgerald in ond O'Brien, Yvonne De Ca Barry Fitzgerald in "SILVER CITY" Color by TECHNICOLOR Also: LATEST NEWS and CARTOON

Being the First True and Unbiased Account of the Yankee Rebellion of 1861

By BILL GIVENS (West Point Cadet)

On the ninth of April, 1865, the commander of the Army of North-ern Virginia, of the Confederate ern Virginia, of the confederate States of America, General Robert E. Lee, sat in his quarters in Ap-pomattox, Virginia. It was late, and Mars' Robert was weary from days on end of battle. Just as he days on end of battle. Just as he was preparing for bed, his door opened and a soldier entered. Presuming the man to be his orderly, the general continued undressing. As he removed his uniform though, As he removed his uniform though, he gave the soldier a severe tongue lashing. The man was absolutely disreputable. Short, grubby, unshaven, and clad in the most disheaveled uniform imaginable, he neaveled uniform imaginable, he was the poorest excuse for an orderly that Mars' Robert had ever seen. The general told the man so in no uncertain terms, then dismissed him with these words:
"For Heaven's sake, soldier, clean "For Heaven's sake, soldier, clean yourself up a bit before you go out where people can see you; you're a disgrace not only to the Confederate Army, but to humanity in general. Here's my sword, take care of it." Then handing the orderly his sword, Mars' Robert retired. Upon receiving the weapon, the fellow giggled excitedly and scampered off into the darkmess. As the door closed, Lee muttered, "Something familiar about that fellow. My God, that was U. S. Grant; I've surrendered!"

Thus after four years of ad-that reliow. My God, that was U. S. Grant; I've surrendered!"

Thus after four years of advancing to the rear, U.S. Grant had seized an opportunity to bring the war to an end, saving so many Union soldiers' lives that he was made President a few years later, out of sheer gratitude.
Funny thing about the Civil War, it wasn't until the whole affair was over that the Confederates found out that the Yankees had been serious about it all. Really serious, that is; the Confederates knew that there was some sort of a stew going on up north about secession, but nobody thought the Yanks were really mad. Down South they all just figured the Yanks were regulty as sort of sporting affair, like a sort of sporting affair, like a ngured the xanks were getting up a sort of sporting affair, like a turkey shoot or a feud. Of course, it was a right popular thing in the South, since feuding was just about the principal means of entertainment anyway. The Rebs couldn't think of anything better than a pourstly be; for a with the couldn't think or anything better than a powerful big feud with the Yanks, so it all got started. The Confederates had four years of the best fun ever. Sometimes the Yanks put on a pretty fair show, but to look at them nobody would ever dream they were really try-log.

Take Bull Run, for instance The Yankees only outnumbered the Confederates about four or five the Confederates about four or five to one, so they were more or less hesitant to attack. Finally, though, MacDowell got them moving some-how, and there they came. Fun-to fire their muskets with one hand

It was immediately after this battle that the Union commander initiated a regulation to the effect that no Union solder would fire his piece in battle except (a) while looking in the direction he intended to fire, and (b) holding his rifle comprised the greatest preponders. You hear a lot of talk with two (2) hands. This was intended, of course, to prevent Federal troops from killing one another. It succeeded not only in this saving of life, but also in a of such severity that he was in tremendous saving of ammunition, pain all the way to Appomattox, for in the Peninsular Campaign only seven rounds were fired by Union 'missing in Canada' losses Pederal soldiers, and no two of increased as the war progressed, looking in the direction he intended hese were fired by the same sol-

ler. Let's take a look at the Confederate breakdown of Bull Run erate

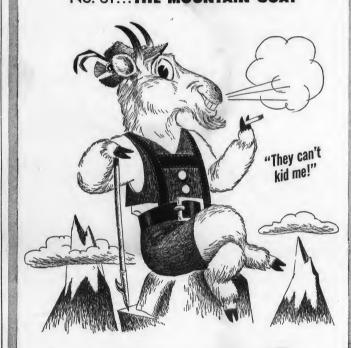

Killed by Federal gunfire _ Killed by friendly troops _ Kicked by horse (wounded only) Died laughing at Union army 1.981

1.982 Total _ It is interesting to note at this time that these laughing losses comprised the greatest preponder-ance of Confederate losses through-and the population of Canada almost doubled before the end of the fighting.

We could go through the rest of the war, but it would only be repetitious. From beginning to end it was the same story over and over; the Union soldiers shot each other and the Confederates laughed themselves to death. If Mars' Robert hadn't been too much of a gentleman to ask for his sword after Appomattox, the war probably would be still going on. You hear a lot of talk about the Confederacy being dead. Don't repeat it in the South. In Mississippi it is regarded as traceon even "to peat it in the South. In Mississippi it is regarded as treason even "to intimate that the Confederacy is even ailing." One day there may be another war between the States. If so, all you Yankees head for Canada; this time we may use

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests No. 31...THE MOUNTAIN GOAT

He thought they were trying to make him the butt-end of a joke when he was asked to judge cigarette mildness with a mere puff of one brand and a quick sniff of another. The fancy foot-work didn't dazzle him! He knew that the pinnacle of pleasure comes from steady smoking . . . and that there is only one test that gives you enough time to permit conclusive proof. Smokers throughout America have made the same decision!

It's the sensible test . . . the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels on a day-after-day, pack-after-pack basis. No snap judgments! Once you've tried Camels for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), you'll see why . . .

AME

After all the Mildness Tests...

Camel leads all other brands by billions

Fads 'n Fashions By Elizabeth Hess

About this time of year everyone gets that rather feverish, barone gets that rather feverish, bar-gain-hunting look in their eyes! If you are so afflicted and have a wallet weighted down with Christmas money, get on down to Carley's and see their amazing sale of coats, suits, dresses, and jackets.

They have lovely three-quarter-length fleecy wool coats that are reduced from $39.95 to $29.95. These have sleeves with adjust-able cuffs, large shiny buttons, and those little round collars that look so cute turned up on winter dates.

If you need a basic black coat, they have a full length one in wool that is the perfect background for gay accessories. It has a pointed collar, covered buttons, and long cuffed sleeves.

cuffed sleeves.
Everyone should have a corduroy jacket, so you'll be interested in the ones at Carley's that are really reduced. They have the regular man-tailored jackets in every color imaginable, and for something special there is a very different style in chartreuse, agua, and orange. These are boxy jackets with patch pockets and high pointed collars. They are fastened in the front by loops of corduroy caught by attractive brown toggles.

Take a look at the casual little three-quarter-length coat of red corduroy. It has a roll collar, three-quarter-length sleeves and graceful fullness in the back.

graceful fullness in the back.
For your most important dates you'll look lovely in the full-length coat of tiny rose and black checked fleecy wool. The enormous black velvet cuffs are caught with high black rhinestone-studded buttons. The collar is also velvet and the buttons continue down the front. This coat also comes in gold—really glamorous.

Carley's also has velvet jackets, coats in every style and material, and racks and racks of suits and dresses.

The sparkle of jewelry will add

The sparkle of jewelry will add exciting new touches to your mid-exciting new toucness to your ma-winter wardrobe, so cross over to Land's Jewel Box and treat your-self to a new pair of earrings! If you want them to be really spectacular, look at the round, disk-shaped earrings that are covered by rhinestones. Around the ered by rhinestones. Around the edge is a scalloped, turned up rim of silver. These are made by Triffari and cost $7.50.

You will be fascinated by the heart-shaped earrings that have a small heart in the center and rhinestone spokes that apread to the scalloped rim.

the scalloped rim.

Land's has handsome earrings in silver and gold that will be the perfect compliment for your best suits and tailored dresses. One pair is a series of five thin bars that form a solid rectangular earring. You will also like the ones that begin with a small circle and swirl into a flame that outlines the ear.

The Jewel Box has one of the most handsome earrings and neck-lace set you have ever seen! The lace set you have ever seen: The necklace is a large only that is surrounded by a setting of gold and strung on a thin gold chain. In the center of the only there is a tiny rhinestone in a triangular setting. There are matching earrings—all for $19.50.

Another striking set has a neck-lace with two rows of rhinestones forming the chain and three clips of tourquoise stones in the front. The earrings are a double row of tourquoise stones diver perfect for carrings are a double row of tourquoise stones—just perfect for your best black dress.

Dot's Beauty Shop

1111 Caroline St. Specializing in STYLING, CUTTING AND

Telephone 444 With or Without Appointment

Dear Mom

Dear Mom—

Well here your daughter is again—back at the old habit trying my fashion to be fascinating. I've got just paragraphs and more of stuff to tell you—and all news. First thing—I broke up with Bill—such a man he was, I mean a real one, not the kind you find in boarding schools or the Navy. He was so unusual—reading all the dictionaries and eating roast duck for sunper—I mean he was the dictionaries and eating roast duck for supper—I mean he was odd in his own manner—and so I decided to stay away from the peculiar type. I mean really Mom—you and Dad are such a couple—you must be because I was the result— and I've always wanted my home modeled after yours. Anyway—that's the bright light in the romance file.

School's still the same definite School's still the same—definite-ly educational. Some of these people are animals. I swear I can look at them sometime and won-der how God could have had such originality to invent them all. I've originality to invent them all. I've been memorizing pages and more pages of the same kind of fiction for our History exam next week. I've brought about my definition of that subject—History is something that never happened written asn't there.

always smoke those Lucky Strikes-Their better taste is grand; I buy 'em by the carton, So they'll always be on hand.

Lois Jaral Santa Barbara College

My roommates this semester— Gad, what people! You walk into the rooms at night wading up to the ankles in ashes. Stepped on a cigarette last night and burned my toe off—hope it grows back by next year—I'll need it when I get married. married.

married.

I'm really trying to pack knowledge into the old brain this year. quite amusing it is—become talented in the poker field and study like mad after lights with the flashlight in your mouth. Stuffed myself in the closet so I wouldn't bother the room-mates (you never how I was considerate) and used. knew I was considerate) and used the old match-method. Felt like crawling under the radiator and playing solitare when the thing ignited and burned my lower lip raw. (My new man will love that)

Well, Mom, your girl has got to flirt with a bottle of sweet milk and try to recapture my youth in a pleasant dream. Try to send some vanishing cream up, will you. I need it to rub off my new need it to rub off my new wrinkles—that mature look doesn't go so well with me.

Write often, even if it's only a dollar or two.

With some affection-

More salt is present in the At-lantic than in the Pacific Ocean.

CLUB ACTIVITIES

IRC

On Thursday evening, January 3, 1952, the International Rela-tions Club's guest of the evening, James Woodward Executive Secretary, Intern Board, Division of Departmental Personnel, Depart-ment of State), was honored at a dinner held in the Pink Room. a dinner held in the Pink Room.
Afterwards, in the Tapestry Room of Seacobeck Hall, Mr. Woodward gave a very informative talk on the subject, 'Job Opportunities in the State Department.'' After completing a short indoctrinal, one is placed in a permanent position. There is much room for advancement; the pay scale is analogous to that of industry. For further information see Kay Showker in Ball 209, or write the State Department.

Eta Sigma Phi

Eta Sigma Phi announces the new members of the national hon-orary classical fraternity whose chapter on the hill is Beta Nu. The new members are: Toula Dro-Paris, Marilyn Morris, Dorothea Pappachristus, Ann Perkinson, Caroline Scarborough and Dawn van Buskirk.

Sigma Tau Chi On December 13, 1951 at 7 o'clock the following girls were formally initiated into Sigma Tau Chi: Kathryn Orem, Norfolk, Virginia; Louise Beck, Seaclift, New York; Dorothy Hunter Britt, Zani, Virginia; Joan C. Coroni, Winchester, Massachusetts; Kathwinchester, Massachusetts; Kath-leen Johnson, Worchester, Massa-chusetts; Helen Louise Beam, Staunton, Virginia; and Susan Hut-cheson, Ashland, Virginia. The initiation program was followed by a social period and refreshments.

GARET

RODUCT OF The American Tobacco Com

The New Year has been ushered in with much commotion, and it promises to be a busy one at the stables. Already plans are underway for the Twentleth Century Fox Moving Picture Company to film the Hoof Prints Club on a hunt. This will probably take place about the beginning of February. Joan Katz and some of the girls from Fairfax Hall will be here to visit on the week end of February 16. Then there will be the annual Gymkhana, the Virginia Schools and Colleges Riding Meet, and of course, the Spring Horse Show. There will also be so many other things to look forward to—small everyday occurences which, over the space of the school year, weave such a tapestry of wonderful memories.

the space of the school year, weave such a tapestry of wonderful memories.

The Old Year certainly was a busy one too. First, there was the excitement of getting ready for the Fall Horse Show. Then came the filming of the Cavalry, the Hoof Prints Initiation, and the Possum Hunt; besides the many breakfasts and other events at the stables. The classes are quite memorable also—remember the day one actually took the jump that had looked so high before (or paid a nickel and wondered how one would ever get the good Virginia mud off of one's riding breeches!) Even the rainy days contributed to their share of the fun. One time we really went Western when Mr. Walther showed us how to vault up behind the saddle while the horse was moving. Then there was the thrill of having Junior win at Madison Square Gardens, and the pride of having Nancy Mosher as cover girl on "The Commonwealth." Yes, the Old Year was full of fun in spite of the "ups" and "downs" (mostly "ups"). So here's a toast to the New Year and good luck to everyone during exams!

Food, Fun, Formals, Join Your Team Features of RA Tea For Intra-Murals

Holly, formals and good fellow-ship abounded at the annual tea given by the Recreational Associa-tion of MWC Sunday afternoon from 3 to 5 in the Tapestry Room of Seacobeck Hall.

The whole student body, admin-istration, and professors were in-stration, and professors were in-vited to attend and meet the R. A. vited to attend and meet the R. A. Council, who were dressed formally and received the guests in the holly and pine decorated Tea Room. The annual social function, one of the highlights of the year here at Mary Washington, was presided over by Carol King, president of the Association. Miss Mary Ellen Stephenson, Dean of Women, and Miss Ruth Leonard, Head of the Physical Education Department and cal Education Department and sponsor of R. A. Council, most graciously poured the tea. The re-freshments were served buffet freshments style. This reception is given each year that the students migh This reception is given each year in order that the students might get to know their RA Association socially as well as functionally. Ar-rangements are made through the Social Committee, whose 1951-52 chairman is Honey Kerrins.

Devils Win 33-27 Volleyball Victory

The Devil volleyball team emerged triumphant in the playoff game Tuesday-night, December 11. It was a close game all the way, with the Devils raising their heads—and incidentally their scores—only in the last half. At half time the Goats were in the top of a 21-11 margin, but with hard teamwork and a roused spirit, the red and white team raised their score to win 33-27. Those devils who succeeded in their score to win 33-27.

Those devils who succeeded in putting the goats in their "little red score-box" were Jane Lloyd, Beth Othway, Sally Tillet, Barbara MacFarland, Burr Anderson (as the captain who sparked her team to victory!), Betty Wise East, Cathy Drogaris, Peggy Hop-kins, Kitty Davis, and Frances kins, Kitty Davis, and Frances Goldeson.

The "boxed" yellow and green team were Nell Amos, Diana Buck-walter, Butch Farmer, Jean Arm-strong, Jean Foster, Sally Gallant, Corley Gibson, Janet Heilman, Carol King, Barbara Mensch, Pat Swain, and Frances Smith.

Sleeping at the police station is all right in a pinch.

More than just a liquid, more than just a cres ew Wildroot Liquid Cream Shampoo is a sination of the best of both.

Even in the hardest water Wildroot Shampoo washes hair gleaming clean, manageable, curl-inviting without robbing hair of its natural oils. Soupless Sudsy...Lanelin Levely I

P.S. To keep hair neat between shampoos use Lady Wildroot Cream Hah

Basketball practice is now going . The practice scheduled for doron. The practice scheduled for dor-mittories is posted on the bulletin board in the gymnasium and print-ed below. Sign up with your coaches, or see Mary D. Churchill, chairman of the R. A. Committee. Each girl who signs up to play in the Dormitory Basketball Tourna-ment which will begin the second semester must have participated in at least two practices. at least two practices.

The dormitories have been di-vided into nine teams, and a coach has been selected for each team. Be sure and check to know your n and the coach.

willard II and the right hand de of Willard I—Pat Swain. Willard III and the left hand de of Willard I—Shirley King. Westmoreland—Maryanne Heatwestflucture and years wole.

Tri Unit—Joan Foley.
Cornell and Spottswood and Ann Fairfax—Nell Amos.
Off Campus—Lois Harder.
Betty Lewis and Trench Hill—
Shirley Sinnard.
Virginia II and right hand side of Virginia II—Peggy Davles.
Virginia III—Trat Overholtzer.
Tuesday, January 15
5:00 Cornell—Virginia III—Off Campus

Campus
Virginia II—Betty Lewis

Mass Practice
Thursday, January 17
Mass Practice
Mass Practice

O. C. Room Is Painted During Christmas

The town girls and off-campus students returned to school with a pleasant surprise in store for them, for much to everyone's joy the furniture in the off-campus room had been painted. The whole room has taken on a new glow with the chairs and tables painted an attractive brown and gray.

"How far is it to the next fill-ing station?" The driver asked a "Night onto two miles as the crow flies."

"Well, how far is it if the damn crow has to walk and roll a flat?"

If all the students who slept in class were put end to end, they would be more comfortable.

Speaking of sad cases, how about the English professor who received a theme with no punctua-tion marks, and died trying to hold his breath until the last page.

The penultimate day of the onth is the next to the last day.

ULMAN'S JEWELRY STORE

908 CAROLINE ST

Enjoy Good

Food

At

THE PRINCESS ANNE HOTEL

Noon 12 to 2 P.M.

Evening 6 to 9 P.M.

What Is The Future Of The College Girl? Have College Women Let Us Down? is a question that Howard Munford Jones answers with an indictment in the January issue of MADEMOISELLE.

indictment in the January issue of MADEMOISELLE.

Mr. Jones, Harvard English professor and president of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, finds a "withering away of the sense of intellectual adventure, of individual inquiry among American college women." No longer is the campus a bastion of causes and movements. Instead, the prevalent belief is that security is the end-all of existence.

"In a nation in which security has become an obsession," Mr. Jones says, "the result is, naturally enough, that kind of genteel self-absorption, that waning of civic spirit characteristic of the present generation of young American girls in college." Nor has this girl "the fogglest suspicion of the truth that to maintain the seaurity she takes for granted, she may have to do something more about it than she does."

She wants a job but not a career. She wants a white-collar husband, but also a ranch house. "interest-

She wants a job but not a career. She wants a white-collar husband, but also a ranch house, "interesting" neighbors, and an income of $10,000 a year ten years after college. She gets her lessons without applying her mind. She is not one whit interested in the world around here. In modern, art Marchen. whit interested in the world around her: In modern art, literature, music or philosophy. "A dark unreasoning fear has her in its grip. This is her fear of the future—dominated by the atom bomb," Jones says. She is pessimistic and confused, but she is unwilling to act. "The world, for the college girl, is tettering on the brink of change, it is going to teeter there for the next few decades, and that's that."

Mr. Jones admits that the college woman's inharmonious elements are an echo of her confused society, but he is not prepared to ments are an echo of her confused society, but he is not prepared to accept the fact that college students are entitled merely to echo society. He feels that "the only way the individual girl can clear up her confusions is to work at the clearance problem, which neither priest nor professor nor parent nor psychologist can do for her."

"I suppose this mood will pass," Meanwhile the colleges are play-Professor Jones says. "Neither the

Fellowship Program

Fellowship Program
Announced By N. A. S.
The National Academy of Sciences National Research Council has announced several large fellowship programs for the academic year 1962-1963. The Academy, organized at the request of Abraham Lincoln to advise the Government on scientific matters, initiated the first national program of fellowships over 30 years ago.
Fellowship programs now offer-

Fellowship programs now offered are sponsored by the National Science Foundation, Merck and Company, Inc., the Lilly Research Laboratories, the Radio Corporation of America, Rockefeller Foundation, the National Tuberculosis Association, and the American Cancer Society.

Applications for fellowships are evaluated by boards appointed by the National Research Council. There are fellowships in the agricultural, biological, engineering, mathematical, medical, and physical sciences at both the predoctoral and postdoctoral level.

The predoctoral fellowships are open to anyone eligible to begin or Fellowship programs now offer-open to anyone eligible to begin or continue graduate study during the 1952-1953 academic year. The ten-ure of a fellowship is for one year ure or a reliowship is for one year and can be arranged to begin at any time after July 1, 1952, but must not be later than the begin-ning of the academic year of the institution of the Fellow's choice.

Senior science majors are especially urged to apply. Applicants will be required to take a Fellowship Record Examination which will be administered at approximately 175 selected centers throughout the United States on January 18, 1952. Stipends will range from $1,400 to $1,600 plus tuition and laboratory fees. Applications must be in by January 7, 1952.

Information and application and applications Senior science majors are espe-

Information and application blanks may be secured by writing the Fellowship Office, National Re-search Council, 2101 Constitution

Announcing

An Extraordinary Motion Picture on Social Hygiene and Birth

> "BECAUSE OF EVE" (The Story of Life)

Pitts Colonial Theatre JANUARY 21 AND 23

Shows for Women Only at 2 and 7 P. M.

Thompson Florist

722 Caroline Street Phone 266

SINGERS SEWING CENTER

COMPLETE LINE OF NOTIONS 814 Caroline Street

JOSEPH H. ULMAN

Feminine Fashions
RIDING TOGS
COSTUME JEWELRY
Caroline St., Fredericksburg

Compliments of

THE HUB LADIES' APPAREL

JUDSON SMITH Photographer

Phone 628

SEE YOUR DORMITORY REPRESENTATIVE

Phone 2181

Dr. Yoe of U. Va. Will Be Guest of Science Club

Dr. John H. Yoe will speak to members of the Matthew Fon-taine Maury Science Club and to all interested members of the stu-dent body and faculty on Thurs-day, January 17, in Chandler 12 at 8:00 P. M. The subject of his speech will be the atomic bomb ex-periments of the summer of 1945, speech will be the atomic both experiments of the summer of 1945, at Bikini. Three films on these experiments will also be shown. At present Dr. Yoe is professor of chemistry and director of the Pratt Analysis Laboratory at the University of Virginia. The first film to be shown is OPERATION CROSSROADS, a Navy reel taken at Bikini during the atomic bomb tests. Dr. Yoe was actually present at the time that this reel was filmed. The other two short films to be shown are ATOMIC ENERGY and ONE WORLD OR NONE.

WORLD OR NONE.

Dr. Yoe was one of the twenty-one American scientists and engineers invited by the War and Navy Department to observe the atomic bomb tests which were held at Bikini Atoll during the summer of 1946. With this group were also twenty-one observers from eleven foreign countries, as well as several United States Senators

The Photography Editor of the Associated Press in Washington has accepted a dozen of the photo-graphs which Mr. Phil Flourney, Virginia State Chamber of Com-Virginia State Chamber of Commerce photographer, took on Campus last October. These Cavalry "shots" have been sent to New York to Wide World Service. It is therefore very possible that a group of these pictures will appear in Sunday rotograveures and magazine sections in papers in various U.S. cittes during the next few months. Please inform the Public Relations Office if you should see these pictures or hear should see these pictures or hear of their being used,

Schnellock Chosen

Senior Class Sponsor
At a recent class meeting the class of 1952 elected Mr. Emile Schnellock class sponsor for the remainder of the year.
Mr. Schnellock is Assistant Professor of Art at Mary Washington

MWC Campus & Cavalry PRIZED SOUTHERN ANTIQUES Make Wide World Service EVHIDITED AT VA ADT MUSEI EXHIBITED AT VA. ART MUSEUM

A firmly rooted tradition concerning the origin of prized southern attages. Investigators insert an exhibition entitled, "Furniture of the Old South, 1640-1820" which opens January 17 at the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts in Richmond.

Armed with cameras, flashlights opens January 17 at the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts in Richmond. Based on the first official and expert research ever done on southern-made furniture, this exhibition will continue through March 2.

Antiquarians have long subscribed to the theory that prosperous Colonial families living below the Mason-Dixon line imported ther finest furniture from England and the northern states because the local crartsmanship was too crude for display in their elegant and sophisticated drawing rooms, dining rooms and halls.

Realizing that his aspect of the antique world had never been thoroughly investigated and sharing the belief that highly skilled cabinet makers did exist in the south during the 17th and 18th centuries, the Virginia Museum, The Magazine Antiques and Colonial Williamsburg determined to stage an exhibition of work produced by this company of heralded craftsmen.

Experts and authorities on antiques embarked on a two-year lady by the south far for epsenish existing the south and the role of the first time.

Experts and authorities on antiques embarked on a two-year lady by the south's most outstanding the long the first time.

Feminine voice over telephone: "Hello, are you Harry?" Masculine voice: "Not especially, lady, but I'm far from bald."

stage an exhibition of work produced by this company of unheralded craftsmen.

Experts and authorities on antiques embarked on a two-year lady, but I'm far from bald."

SVM Assemble At U. Kansas

The 16th quadrennial of the Student Volunteer Movement was held at the University of Kansas from December 27 to January 1.

December 27 to January 1.

Religious leaders came from more than 600 colleges in the United States and Canada, representing 40 different Protestant and Eastern Orthodox organizations of the Christian church. In addition there were 200 representatives from other continents—students from 45 foreign countries who were studying in North America. Several delegations were from Asia, Africa and the Middle East.

The purpose of the conference

The purpose of the conference was to place emphasis on Christianity in a time of revolution.

Whaleyville Senior Reigns Over Dinner

Nancy Parker, a senior from Whaleyville, Va., and a member of the 1952 May Court, will be "Queen" at the dinner to be given in High Point on January 22 by the Southern Retail Furniture As-sociation. sociation.

Then there's the meterologist-who carried his date out into fog and mist.

